Hubbard v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., et al.
Plaintiff's Complaint

I. SUMMARY

1. This is a civil rights action by plaintiff Barbara Hubbard ("Hubbard") for discrimination at the building, structure, facility, complex, property, land, development, and/or surrounding business complex known as:

Rite Aid #5616
1325 3rd Avenue
Chula Vista, CA 91911
(hereafter "the Store")

2. Hubbard seeks damages, injunctive and declaratory relief, attorney fees and costs, against Thrifty Payless, Inc. dba Rite Aid #5616 and Rancho Palomar, LP (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Rite Aid") pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, (42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq.), and related California statutes.

II. JURISDICTION

3. This Court has original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1333 for ADA claims.

4. Supplemental jurisdiction for claims brought under parallel California law—arising from the same nucleus of operative facts—is predicated on 28 U.S.C. § 1337.

5. Hubbard's claims are authorized by 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

III. VENUE

6. All actions complained of herein take place within the jurisdiction of the United States District Court, Southern District of California, and venue is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), (c).

IV. PARTIES

7. Rite Aid owns, operates, and/or leases the Store, and consists of a person (or persons), firm, and/or corporation.

8. Hubbard has multiple conditions that affect one or more major life functions. She requires the use of motorized wheelchair and a mobility-equipped vehicle, when traveling about in public. Consequently, Hubbard is "physically disabled," as defined by all applicable California and United States laws, and a member of the public whose rights are protected by these laws.

V. FACTS

9. The Store is an establishment open to the public, intended for nonresidential use and whose operation affects commerce.

10. Hubbard visited the Store and encountered barriers (both physical and intangible) that interfered with—if not outright denied—her ability to use and enjoy the goods, services, privileges, and accommodations offered at the facility. To the extent known by Hubbard, the barriers at the Store included, but are not limited to, the following:

- The tow away signage posted is incorrect and/or there is no tow away signage posted;
- There is no accessible route from the public way;
- The disabled parking spaces are too short;
- The signage posted at the disabled parking spaces are not correct;
- The signage posted at the van accessible parking space is not correct;
- The disabled parking spaces have slopes and cross slopes that exceed 2.0%;
- The adjacent access aisles have slopes and cross slopes that exceed 2.0%;
- There are no check stands designated as accessible to the disabled;
- There are no check stands with signage stating that the aisle shall remain open at all times for patrons with disabilities;
- The signage at the restroom door is not correct;
- The restroom stall is too small;
- The stall door is not self closing;

- 1 • The restroom door opening is too narrow;
- 2 • The lock is mounted too high;
- 3 • There are no grab bars provided;
- 4 • The water closet is an obstruction to the use of the disposable seat
- 5 cover dispenser;
- 6 • The disposable seat cover dispenser is mounted behind the water closet
- 7 and is therefore out of the reach range requirements;
- 8 • The disposable seat cover dispenser is mounted more than 40 inches from
- 9 the floor;
- 10 • The mirror is mounted at more than 40 inches from the floor;
- 11 • The pipes underneath the lavatory are not completely and/or are
- 12 improperly wrapped; and,
- 13 • There is not the required 18 inches of strike side clearance when exiting
- 14 the restroom.

15 These barriers prevented Hubbard from enjoying full and equal access.

16 11. Hubbard was also deterred from visiting the Store because she

17 knew that the Store's goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and 18 accommodations were unavailable to physically disabled patrons (such as 19 herself). She continues to be deterred from visiting the Store because of the 20 future threats of injury created by these barriers.

21 12. Hubbard also encountered barriers at the Store, which violate state

22 and federal law, but were unrelated to her disability. Nothing within this

23 Complaint, however, should be construed as an allegation that Hubbard is 24 seeking to remove barriers unrelated to her disability.

25 13. Rite Aid knew that these elements and areas of the Store were

26 inaccessible, violate state and federal law, and interfere with (or deny) access to 27 the physically disabled. Moreover, Rite Aid has the financial resources to

28 remove these barriers from the Store (without much difficulty or expense), and

1 make the facility accessible to the physically disabled. To date, however, Rite
2 Aid refuses to either remove those barriers or seek an unreasonable hardship
3 exemption to excuse non-compliance.

4 14. At all relevant times, Rite Aid has possessed and enjoyed sufficient
5 control and authority to modify the Store to remove impediments to wheelchair
6 access and to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act Accessibility
7 Guidelines and Title 24 regulations. Rite Aid has not removed such 8 impediments and has not modified the Store to conform to accessibility
9 standards. Rite Aid has intentionally maintained the Store in its current 10 condition and has intentionally refrained from altering the Store so that it
11 complies with the accessibility standards.

12 15. Hubbard further alleges that the (continued) presence of barriers at 13 the Store is so obvious as to establish Rite Aid discriminatory intent.¹ On 14 information and belief, Hubbard avers that evidence of this discriminatory intent
15 includes Rite Aid refusal to adhere to relevant building standards; disregard for 16 the building plans and permits issued for the Store; conscientious decision to the 17 architectural layout (as it currently exists) at the Store; decision not to remove 18 barriers from the Store; and allowance that the Store continues to exist in its non-
19 compliant state. Hubbard further alleges, on information and belief, that Rite
20 Aid is not in the midst of a remodel, and that the barriers present at the Store are 21 not isolated (or temporary) interruptions in access due to maintenance or 22 repairs.²

Hubbard v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., et al.

Plaintiff's Complaint

1 VI. FIRST CLAIM

2 Americans with Disabilities Act of 19903 Denial of "Full and Equal" Enjoyment and Use4 16. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
5 through 15 for this claim.6 17. Title III of the ADA holds as a "general rule" that no individual
7 shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal
8 enjoyment (or use) of goods, services, facilities, privileges, and accommodations
9 offered by any person who owns, operates, or leases a place of public
10 accommodation. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a).11 18. Rite Aid discriminated against Hubbard by denying "full and equal 12 enjoyment" and use of the goods, services, facilities, privileges or 13 accommodations of the Store during each visit and each incident of deterrence.14 Failure to Remove Architectural Barriers in an Existing Facility15 19. The ADA specifically prohibits failing to remove architectural 16 barriers, which are structural in nature, in existing facilities where such removal
17 is readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). The term "readily 18 achievable" is defined as "easily accomplishable and able to be carried out
19 without much difficulty or expense." Id. § 12181(9).20 20. When an entity can demonstrate that removal of a barrier is not 21 readily achievable, a failure to make goods, services, facilities, or 22 accommodations available through alternative methods is also specifically 23 prohibited if these methods are readily achievable. Id. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(v).24 21. Here, Hubbard alleges that Rite Aid can easily remove the 25 architectural barriers at the Store without much difficulty or expense, and that 26 Rite Aid violated the ADA by failing to remove those barriers, when it was 27 readily achievable to do so.

1 22. In the alternative, if it was not “readily achievable” for Rite Aid to 2 remove the Store’s barriers, then Rite Aid violated the ADA by failing to make
 3 the required services available through alternative methods, which are readily 4 achievable.

5 Failure to Design and Construct an Accessible Facility

6 23. On information and belief, the Store was designed or constructed (or 7 both) after January 26, 1992—Independently triggering access requirements
 8 under Title III of the ADA.

9 24. The ADA also prohibits designing and constructing facilities for 10 first occupancy after January 26, 1993, that aren’t readily accessible to, and 11 usable by, individuals with disabilities when it was structurally practicable to do
 12 so. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(1).

13 25. Here, Rite Aid violated the ADA by designing or constructing (or 14 both) the Store in a manner that was not readily accessible to the physically
 15 disabled public—including Hubbard—when it was structurally practical to do
 16 so.³

17 Failure to Make an Altered Facility Accessible

18 26. On information and belief, the Store was modified after January 26,
 19 1992, independently triggering access requirements under the ADA.

20 27. The ADA also requires that facilities altered in a manner that affects 21 (or could affect) its usability must be made readily accessible to individuals with 22 disabilities to the maximum extent feasible. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2). Altering 23 an area that contains a facility’s primary function also requires adding making 24 the paths of travel, bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving that 25 area accessible to the maximum extent feasible. Id.

26
 27
 28 ³ Nothing within this Complaint should be construed as an allegation that plaintiff is bringing this action as a private attorney general under either state or federal statutes.

28. Here, Rite Aid altered the Store in a manner that violated the ADA and was not readily accessible to the physically disabled public—including Hubbard—to the maximum extent feasible.

Failure to Modify Existing Policies and Procedures

29. The ADA also requires reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures, when necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity can demonstrate that making such modifications would fundamentally alter their nature. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).

30. Here, Rite Aid violated the ADA by failing to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures at the Store, when these modifications were necessary to afford (and would not fundamentally alter the nature of) these goods, services, facilities, or accommodations.

31. Hubbard seeks all relief available under the ADA (i.e., injunctive relief, attorney fees, costs, legal expense) for these aforementioned violations. 42 U.S.C. § 12205.

32. Hubbard also seeks a finding from this Court (i.e., declaratory relief) that Rite Aid violated the ADA in order to pursue damages under California's Unruh Civil Rights Act or Disabled Persons Act.

VII. SECOND CLAIM

Disabled Persons Act

33. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 30 for this claim.

34. California Civil Code § 54 states, in part, that: Individuals with disabilities have the same right as the general public to the full and free use of the streets, sidewalks, walkways, public buildings and facilities, and other public places.

1 35. California Civil Code § 54.1 also states, in part, that: Individuals
2 with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access to accommodations,
3 facilities, telephone facilities, places of public accommodation, and other places
4 to which the general public is invited.

5 36. Both sections specifically incorporate (by reference) an individual's 6 rights under the ADA. See Civil Code §§ 54(c) and 54.1(d).

7 37. Here, Rite Aid discriminated against the physically disabled
8 public—including Hubbard—by denying them full and equal access to the Store.
9 Rite Aid also violated Hubbard’s rights under the ADA, and, therefore, infringed
10 upon or violated (or both) Hubbard’s rights under the Disabled Persons Act.

11 38. For each offense of the Disabled Persons Act, Hubbard seeks actual 12 damages (both general and special damages), statutory minimum damages of one
13 thousand dollars ($1,000), declaratory relief, and any other remedy available
14 under California Civil Code § 54.3.

15 39. She also seeks to enjoin Rite Aid from violating the Disabled
16 Persons Act (and ADA) under California Civil Code § 55, and to recover
17 reasonable attorneys' fees and incurred under California Civil Code §§ 54.3 and 18 55.

VIII. THIRD CLAIM

Unruh Civil Rights Act

21 40. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
22 through 30 for this claim.

23 41. California Civil Code § 51 states, in part, that: All persons within 24 the jurisdiction of this state are entitled to the full and equal accommodations, 25 advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishments of 26 every kind whatsoever.

42. California Civil Code § 51.5 also states, in part, that: No business establishment of any kind whatsoever shall discriminate against any person in this state because of the disability of the person.

43. California Civil Code § 51(f) specifically incorporates (by reference) an individual's rights under the ADA into the Unruh Act.

44. Rite Aid aforementioned acts and omissions denied the physically disabled public—including Hubbard—full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges and services in a business establishment (because of their physical disability).

45. These acts and omissions (including the ones that violate the ADA) denied, aided or incited a denial, or discriminated against Hubbard by violating the Unruh Act.

46. Hubbard was damaged by Rite Aid wrongful conduct, and seeks statutory minimum damages of four thousand dollars ($4,000) for each offense.

47. Hubbard also seeks to enjoin Rite Aid from violating the Unruh Act (and ADA), and recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred under California Civil Code § 52(a).

IX. FOURTH CLAIM

Denial of Full and Equal Access to Public Facilities

48. Hubbard incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 13 for this claim.

49. Health and Safety Code § 19955(a) states, in part, that: California public accommodations or facilities (built with private funds) shall adhere to the provisions of Government Code § 4450.

50. Health and Safety Code § 19959 states, in part, that: Every existing (non-exempt) public accommodation constructed prior to July 1, 1970, which is altered or structurally repaired, is required to comply with this chapter.

51. Hubbard alleges the Store is a public accommodation constructed, altered, or repaired in a manner that violates Part 5.5 of the Health and Safety Code or Government Code § 4450 (or both), and that the Store was not exempt under Health and Safety Code § 19956.

52. Rite Aid non-compliance with these requirements at the Store aggrieved (or potentially aggrieved) Hubbard and other persons with physical disabilities. Accordingly, she seeks injunctive relief and attorney fees pursuant to Health and Safety Code § 19953.

X. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Hubbard prays judgment against Rite Aid for:

1. Injunctive relief, preventive relief, or any other relief the Court deems proper.
2. Declaratory relief that Rite Aid violated the ADA for the purposes of Unruh Act or Disabled Persons Act damages.
3. Statutory minimum damages under either sections 52(a) or 54.3(a) of the California Civil Code (but not both) according to proof.
4. Attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs of suit.⁴
5. Interest at the legal rate from the date of the filing of this action.
